FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

March 3, 2006

WRR brings popular radio show 'From the Top' to the Eisemann Center on Thursday, March 23

From the Top, the hit syndicated radio program that “proves classical music can be cool” (Boston Herald), will record at the Eisemann Center in Richardson on Thursday, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. The program, presented by WRR Classical 101.1 FM and hosted by internationally renowned pianist Christopher O’Reilly, will feature young musicians from across the country including North Texas.

From the Top, airing locally on WRR on Saturday at 9 a.m., showcases the stories and musical performances of exceptional pre-college age classical musicians. Each one-hour program features performances by five soloists or ensembles ages 8-18.

A live taping of From the Top is a “blend of talk show and a music performance show with a nod to the easy-going charm of A Prairie Home Companion” (Symphony Magazine). The program includes informal interviews, skits and games and performances by extraordinary young musicians. This is the first time since 2004 that the program has traveled to North Texas to tape a show.

“We encourage From the Top fans to purchase tickets now,” WRR General Manager Greg Davis said. “Currently, there is only one taping scheduled and it should sell out quickly. From the Top is one of WRR’s most popular programming features. It’s a program the entire family enjoys. And, it’s a wonderful opportunity to introduce younger listeners to classical music.”

The March 23 taping will be at Eisemann Center, 2351 Performance Drive in Richardson. For tickets, call 972-744-4650 or order online at www.eisemanncenter.org.
